Craft Spells

the moment she started talking, i heard nothing (i like the way you walk, ramona show me how to stop) she whispered out my name, and my heart did nothing (i like the way you walk, ramona show me how to stop)

dialing up your phone again, hoping it's not too late ramona show your thighs show you're mine for the lucky eyes as bright as the morning sky you leak light like paper white
