

Your Tomb

Craft Spells

into your tomb,
i've had enough of you cause i'm tired of playing the fool not another kiss from you i'll throw a rose to cover up your face cause i'm tired of waiting for you you're the reason that i had lost faith in dreams of dreams i can't live in i want to run from the rumors that are true you want to run from the rumors that are true don't be so rude,

i've had enough of you
cause i'm tired of feeling confused

i'll throw a rose to celebrate your end but when you rise from the dead i will love you again
