

Revival Day

Craig Cardiff

In a borrowed car we sang evaporated.
It's beautiful when you go low and I go high.
Watch you dear, oh we'll beat this.
If I believe enough the lord will provide.

Lay on hands, hymns and praises.
Sing in tongues, salvation true and right.
Jesus saves if you let him.
Donation plate passed through the aisle.

Revival day was the saddest,
Passed on by at the sight of skin and bones.
Pushed to the front but the cameras ducked down.
No one wants to watch dying at home.
