Slide

do you know do you know you make me dream too much make me dream too much and when i think of you and when i think of pulled up? do you know do you know you make me scream too much just silently it's only too much far away is such a lonely place to be just, just be here with me just be here with me Lyrics do you know do you know you make me dream too much make me dream too much and when i think of you and when i think of pulled up? do you know do you know you make me scream too much just silently it's only too much far away is such a lonely place to be just, just be here with me just be here with me

Cranes