

Alone

Crashdiet

Pickin' up the phone
Ain't an option now
I wanna use the gun tonite

Lyin' on the bed
Beggin for the blow
Feelin' kinda dead
Aching to the bone

Breathing down yer spine
In a darkened room
I wanna take my time
But it's heading out of line

Craving for your touch
That's gonna bring me down
Like a kiss of death
I just can't turn away

I can be the one alone
I can be the one alone
I can be your own alone

Don't you kill the light
Let's keep the dark away
I wanna see those eyes
Tonite

I can take my life
And give it all to you
I'd even do it twice
All alone for you
