

Armageddon

Crashdiet

I was born under treacherous skies
I was silenced and tied to my eyes
I was held down in water and blood became harder inside

I was torn under murderous lies
But They couldn't put out the flame in my eyes With a fist full of harm and pounding blood warm
I stood up and faced with the fight

You can't save me now, I have come to far
You can't play me now, don't want your revelation let the heaven fall down

This is my Armageddon

The sun becomes shallow at noon
My blood will be warmer real soon
The lights struggles by as water collides with waves of destruction inside

You can't save me now, I have gone to far
You can't play me now don't want your revelation let the heaven come down

This is my Armageddon
And I don't know just what to do about it
I guess I'll change but I'll still be the same
