

Hollywood tease

Crashdiet

I don't know what you doing to me
I make a wath child easy to see
Said away, away, out of my head

Your invitation i couldn't resist
I guess, i'm the next on the list
Said away, away, down on the plead

There's no tomorrow
I would rather sleep
With a hollywood tease

Just a tease, for hollywood tease
Just a tease, for hollywood tease

I guess i don't mind breaking the rules
I sound surrounded by several fools
And they away, away, out of their heads

You got the skills, it takes to please
That's why they call you, a hollywood tease
And you away, away, out of your head

There's no tomorrow
I would rather sleep
With a hollywood tease

Just a tease, for hollywood tease
Just a tease, for hollywood tease

Simon whispers:

Lets breaking down
I don't wanna know the truth
Lets breaking down
