

Lost Horizons

Crashdiet

Tonight I try to change my way of melodie to please your lusts and make myself a company.. the pain I cause aint worth the time you lay would on me coz tonight I think its up to me to make it real..

Thou I fought before now I wanna struggle more youre the one I am living for..

Oh your love is a serious burning and my eyes are the mirror of pain in the depths of my heart I am learning to make you smile again..

Tonight I celebrate the love we share oh can you feel the love I am giving you im always there.. the loneliness been knockin on your door for far to long and I hope to see the faze of warmth that has been gone..

The sun is rising
over lost horizons
I pick a star and give to you..

no more tears no more scars no psychotic fathers lonely nights in our cells without love from eachother I am yours you are mine and we livin forever..
