Crashdiet

The heat is rising, the time is here the real edification we're a million dreams, and all its fears that's the core of this creation we're comind straigh outta hell we're comming straight outta hell the bursting of the universe the noiz when worlds collide we're the eristic propheds in this modern curse of time we don't confide in the midnite hour, we rise and come alive this is the journey of our odyssey 1,2,3,4

we're coming straight outta hell
