

Sanctuary

Crimpshrine

All the lonely people roam
The streets in search of makeshift home
In all the darkness there's one light
A shining Mecca in the night

There's no sanctuary from your own mind
There's no sanctuary from the binds of time
There's no sanctuary from what troubles you
There is nowhere else to go, this will have to do

They tried to break me in that place
I she'd my number, showed my face
They said face up, you just can't hide
I dug a tunnel, crawled inside

Sanctuary...
