Lady of Winter

Crimson Glory

Her wraith rides the crystal skyOf changing colors
The glowing clouds are moving throughThe winter night
Snow is falling silver shining
Through the shadows deep blue dreamingEyes of diamond shine
Lady of winter, turning to rain
White world of wonder, fading away

Bright beams of violent lightBreak the silenceMelting colors cr ushed beneath the wavesOf rolling flames Seasons turning, burning burning Lady of winter, song in the wind Melody whispers, seasons will change

Lady of winter, turning to rainWhite world of wonder, fading aw ay

Lady of winter, song in the wind Melody whispers, seasons will change
