

Electric Possession

Crisix

Before the gates of death, with enormous sorrow
The lies of men condemned me to this punishment
Driven by the lightning of doom's hollow
The hammer of justice smashed my brain
Electric embodiment!

Now you'll pay the price
I will take my vengeance
I was not guilty
Taste my hate, I'm raging!

Electric Possession!
I'm the storm's reflection
Fatal fate, Electric Possession!
Rage invasion
You will pay!

I was condemned by humans
Now I'll condemn you
Your sons will pay your mistakes
With my electric soul

Feel the power of lightning
Eternal storm
Running in your entrails
Like a crazy train!

Now you'll pay the price
I will take my vengeance

I'm the storm's reflection
Fatal fate, Electric Possession!
Rage invasion
You will pay!
Electric Possession!
