

Hate Me

Criss Angel

Welcome to a world of hate
Where does it come from, all this hatred?
I know who you are
Get out of my face
I can't compete with your expensive toys
So what's the difference anyway
You do the same shit every day

Hate me for what I am
Hate me for what I'm not
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

I know who I am, I know who I am
I know who I am, and who are you?
I know who I am, I know who I am,
I know who I am, and who are you?
You hate me, you hate me,
You hate me for what I am

Hate me for what I am
Hate me for what I'm not
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

Hate me (I'm sick of shit with you)
Hate me (I'm sick of shit with you)
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

Hate you

Father, forgive me, for I have sinned
Of what sin are you guilty?
I have been guilty of hating all mankind

Run, run!

Hate me for what I am
Hate me for what I'm not
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

Hate me (I'm sick of shit with you)
Hate me (I'm sick of shit with you)
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

Where does it come from, all this hatred?

Drive them, drive them into utter submission
Do not show the slightest pity or mercy
Never stop
Go, go!

Hate me for what I am
Hate me for what I'm not
Hate me with everything and anything you've got

Where does it come from, all this hatred?
