

Underground

Criss Angel

Again, the one who's gonna sink in
But this fills my mind
Again, never gonna tell you to stop
With whom I trust in
Say it to your mind and you become chemical
The truth in all mankind
Again, again, I think I'm gonna tell you to stop
To my mind, let's go

You wanna bring me down, but leave me underground
You're underground
I won't give into you, find someone else to screw
You're going down
You're underground

Again, again, I think I'm gonna say it
Speak what's on your tongue
Don't get my strength and bring it down
Choke your feeble mind
Say it to your mind and you become chemical
Everyone obey
Again, again, I think I'm gonna tell you to stop
You never obey

You wanna bring me down, but leave me underground
You're going down
I won't give into you, find someone else to screw
You're underground
But it doesn't matter what you do, I won't give in to you

You wanna bring me down, but leave me underground
You're going down
I won't give into you, find someone else to screw
You're underground
But it doesn't matter what you do, I won't give in to you
I won't give in to you, I won't give in to you
I won't give in to you
