Face The Facts

You'd better face those facts It's the blind leadin the blind And there ain't no turning back There's a rhythm to this madness And I think it's gettin strange I can feel it in the air it's time We gotta rearrange It's time for us we gotta make The crucial change

Face the facts Nation against nation And it's just so plain to see That's the way that cats And dogs wanna be Hate to think what The future's got in store for me Got a stomach full And just can't take it no more
