

Alright

Cross Canadian Ragweed

Thinking back to my college days
Man that was such a haize
Always some party going on Someone up getting drunk
Someone down getting stoned
The Jimmy Hendrix poser in the hall
Covering up that hole in the wall

Five for a dollar, man the price is right
Ramen Noodles almost everynight
The Credit Card will surely cover Spring Break
But I might sit at home and just buy me a steak
Well I ate it all by myself
And told my roomates to go to hell

If your going downtown to the liquor store bring me a bottle of wine
I've been taking myself much too seriously lately
And I need to unwind
So fire up the charcoal and we'll sit in the yard
Get primed up and head out to the bar
I wonder who's playing down on the strip tonight
Hey man life's alright

It's penny beer night and bar hoppin around Someone breaking a heart
Someone laying one down
Waiting in line at the all night cafe
I drank all my money, how am I gonna pay
And it's "Oh my spinning head"
And it's one foot off the bed
