

Overtable

Cross Canadian Ragweed

Won't you let it go
It's taken its toll
Yeah, you beat down, you choked it out
Chewed it up and spit it out
I can't take no more

Only so much I can give
Only so much you can take
Won't you please just let me live
Only so much you can break
When you see me flyin' now
Baby, please don't bring me down

Overtable look
That was all it took
It was one for the books, that overtable look
Yeah, you picked it up from the ground
Found the faintest hint of sound
I might still be here

You've got reasons to cry
Baby, so do I
Even though I know they will dry
You know I care, but to be fair
This ain't going anywhere
Until you let it go

When you see me flyin' now
Baby, please don't bring me down
Down
