

Open Up Your Eyes

Crossfade

You can hear clearly now
The ringing in my head
Do you believe me now?
Or do you still think I'm just trying to bring you down?
To wreck this to the ground
Your thinking always so well
Tell me what will I do now

Can you hear me now?

Can I be alone?
Can I sleep alone?
Can I be alone?
We all die alone

I can see clearly how
A life gets thorn away
So easy to let them down
When no one knows just what you're thinking
It's hard to laugh when they smile when you're not around
When no one cares you're here, you don't want to be found

I don't want to be found!

I won't be alone
I won't sleep alone
I won't be alone
I won't die alone

So everybody just sing along
Make the answer known
Know that none of us are alone
Everyone of us should feel life
So open up your eyes!

Open up your eyes!

We won't be alone
We won't sleep alone
We won't be alone
We won't die alone

Open up your eyes!
Open up your eyes!
