

Washing the World Away

Crossfade

When will this all be over
How come this never ends
This room keeps closing in on me

This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
washing the world away

Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah
Washing the world away
Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah
Washing the world away

Why cant I get through today
Feeling blind theres only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe in time, Ill find my way

I feel that no one understands me
Feel so alone
Does anyone feel the way I do
(I just wanna take all this love)

This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
Washing the world away

Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah
Washing the world away
Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah
Washing the world away

So how can i get through today
Feeling blind theres only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe in time, Ill find my way

I dont think il make it through today
Feeling blind theres only me to blame
But still i find, Tried to hide
Maybe this time, Ill find my way
