Washing the World Away

Crossfade

When will this all be over How come this never ends This room keeps closing in on me

This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
washing the world away

Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah Washing the world away Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah Washing the world away

Why cant I get through today
Feeling blind theres only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe in time, Ill find my way

I feel that no one understands me Feel so alone Does anyone feel the way I do (I just wanna take all this love)

This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
Washing the world away

Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah Washing the world away Hey-Yeah Hey-Yeah Washing the world away

So how can i get through today Feeling blind theres only me to blame But still I find, I tried to hide Maybe in time, Ill find my way

I dont think il make it through today Feeling blind theres only me to blame But still i find, Tried to hide Maybe this time, Ill find my way
