

You like your lifestyle
You wearing cheap pride
Fake talking kill me
I'm sick of your humanity
I know you're fake coward
But you oppose it
You will keep crying shut me
I break your make stronger wall

You pay to me
I was killed by lie you forget it
I was killed by a contract break it
Burning birds flying in the sky
You never watch me
Let's show it on you
This world that you reject

Spring it around it

Taste the blood like cold pain blue
And it's time it's time too late
Running forever like cold pain blue
And it's time it's time too late

You like your lifestyle
You wearing cheap pride
Fake talking kill me
I'm sick of your humanity
Your world is tone deaf
I think your everthing is meaningless
Just fake empire
I trust myself and stand up

Lies killing me
Lies burning all of made it
Can you listen to these words
Pride of me
Worst enemy
Too late we set fire
Can you listen to these words
Pride of me

Goddamn

Taste the blood like cold pain blue
And it's time
And it's time it's time too late
Running forever like cold pain blue
And it's time it's time too late
