

Voices

Crossfaith

Wake up the lost these words
You killed the someone voices
Can you hear my screame
You find my shades

I seek your eyes
Why you hide the lost these words
Sun find it out

You stop the sorrow
I hope scratch inside my heae.
And can't step behind in the like strong my heartache.

How do you runaway
How do you break
How do you disapear
I tell you all
Pay back the pain to you right now
Your blood poring to your scars
This game is already is over

You stop the sorrow
I hope scratch inside my heae.
And can't step behind in the like strong my heartache.

We singing we fightingit is for me
You regret through my words
You no way out
I tried say can you help me but you betrayed of my word

You stop the sorrow
I hope scratch inside my heae.
And can't step behind in the like strong my heartache.
