Hole in the River

Crowded House

There's a hole in the river where my auntie lies From the land of the living to the air and sky Left her car by the river left her shoes beside Through the thorns and the bushes I hope she was...

Dreaming of glory Miles above the mountains and plains Free at last

We were touched by a cold wind, my father and i
The sound of desperate breathing her fear inside us all
She was coming to see him but something changed her mind
Drove her down to the river
There is no return

There's a hole in the river where a memory lies From the land of the living to the air and sky She was coming to see him But something changed her mind, Drove her down to the river There is no return
