

Are you hanging on my words tonight?
Don't you get it?
Hold your breath and everything's just fine.
Don't you get it?
Forgotten we could be alone
if we waste away
If there's a love that brings us home
it drowned today

We smile and grind our teeth away
Good luck forgot to call our name
(Good God)
Lucky us

No one's hanging on our words tonight.
Don't you get it?
You can try, but you won't change their minds.
Don't forget it

Burned in the sun, afraid of what you'll become You'll pay the price when you're free, you'll see
Tell me who you want to be.
Tell me what you want to see

Tortured, but no one leads the way
Force-fed like rats inside a maze
