

Hear our Voices!

Cruadalach

That was possibly the best day of my life
When I stood still and realized:
thinking i could hear, but never listened to my heart

I thought I'm alone and about to fall Yet there are some who call me so I answered their call

Hear our voices - Piercing the silence
Hear our voices - Let's go far away
Hear our voices - You know we're with you
Hear our voices - So keep your faith!

I know I am stubborn like a bull when I think that I know what's the best for me
Filled with scorn towards the crowd yet deaf like a sheep
I retreat before I try to achieve what you are and your way of life your visions and hopes which separate you from the crowd Now I thank Gods that you had the patience to teach me that sometimes the most precious jewels are not the most glaring ones

Hear our voices - Piercing the silence
Hear our voices - Let's go far away
Hear our voices - You know we're with you
Hear our voices - So keep your faith!

I'm so ashamed for being blind towards your glare
I don't have excuse for my lack of care
We are just human so we have to discover that sometimes we burn out by our own fire

Now I'm stunned by your dreams - Thanks for inspiring me for the rest of my life
I swear that I will perceive your words that teach me how to be a better guy

I found that your oceans can calm my wounds
If I get at least the echoes of your words...
