

Voice of Unreason

Cryptopsy

ossuary for the misinformed you'd end up being amazed of what you'd see inside the wisps of knowledge denied and to think that someone's impired it's a better place to reside take that voice of unreason asked that question about the chaos that lies dormant within have pondered through a pond of useless information fooled tricked but I'm slowly coming around fell for it once never again ignorance is bliss for the miner of fool's gold can't teach a dog that's too old the motherfucker'll take a bite of the poison indoctrinate unfiltered lore teaching

teaching
absolutely nothing

intravenously force fed a slave state of intelligence meant to break these bonds of some point howsabout now

the bottom line
I've saved you the time wasted on a lost cause
no longer
