Am I Free?

Crystal Ball

Sometimes I need a sign to get the power The sharp pain inside is killing me I'm waiting for my turn It seems so unreal I won't take control Just tell me I'm wrong I don't look back I lost my way No fairytale Escape from burning hell Yes, I can tell Am I free? Yes, I'm free and I see The door is open I just turned the key Am I free? Yes, I'm free and I see The door is open I just turned the key Why can't I find the minds that made me strong? Why can't I learn to feel what's right and wrong? Too blind to see that I'm an ignorant child The hurt inside my heart is so hard to hide I don't look back I lost my way No fairytale Escape from burning hell Yes, I can tell Am I free? Yes, I'm free and I see The door is open I just turned the key Am I free? Yes, I'm free and I see The door is open I just turned the key
