Crystal Ball

I'm standing at the door
Early in the morning
I just couldn't sleep anymore
Illusions of tomorrow
Visions of today
Drained my passion away

Here I am, tell me why
I should follow your wretched advice

Step by step
I've got to know
Which path's the right one to go
Step by step
In my life
I learned independence my way

I'll never go to heaven
I'll never go to hell
It's time to break the spell
Sometimes you take a bruising
Sometimes life's amusing
It's hard to keep your sanity

Here I am, tell me why
I should follow your wretched advice

Step by step
I've got to know
Which path's the right one to go
Step by step
In my life
I learned independence my way

All that I that want is to live my own life
Show me emotions and I see you in me

Step by step
I've got to know
Which path's the right one to go
Step by step
In my life
I learned independence my way

Step by step
I've got to know
Which path's the right one to go
Step by step
In my life
I learned independence my way

Step by step
I've got to know
Step by step
In my life
