

Won't Bite

Crystal Ball

You're sitting down
In the corner
Out in the cold rain

You stare in the night
And I see - your eyes filled with pain

I ask you to dance
But you say: "you ain't gotta chance"
Fever is starting to grow
I'm ready for the show

You're the one I adore
I bang at your door

I won't bite
So don't hide
Just let me inside
I won't bite
It's allright
Your eyes are shining so bright

Please let me know your secret
Yes, I need it
Maybe it's wrong or it's right
But you know we should try

You drive me insane, yes it's me
You're afraid of my sanity
Screaming for more and an answer
To make you mine

You're the one I adore
I bang at your door

I won't bite
So don't hide
Just let me inside
I won't bite
It's allright
Your eyes are shining so bright

It's nice to be in your arms, that set me free
It's plain to see, you're the best girl for me

I won't bite
So don't hide
Just let me inside
I won't bite
It's allright
Your eyes are shining so bright
I won't bite
So don't hide
Just let me inside
I won't bite
It's allright
Your eyes are shining so bright
