

Everything Falls Into Place

Crystal Bowersox

Didn't find love, no, love found me
It was hiding in the last place I thought that it would be
I was so busy looking around for something tried and true
Don't know why it took so long to fall in love with you

All of our time keeps on sliding
Every new day same sun is rising Every morning when I wake up and my feet touch the ground
Every turn about the day may bring something more,
something found
The day that I loved you, you're up so high, my saving grace
It's how I know everything falls into place

Gave away my last dollar, it was my last one to lose Gave it to a man 'cause he bled red, white and blue
That man won the lottery but he was simple in his ways Bought himself a brand new truck, gave the rest away

All of our time keeps on sliding
Every new day same sun is rising
Every morning when I wake up and my feet touch the
ground
Every turn about the day may bring something more,
something found
The day that I loved you, you're up so high, my saving
grace
It's how I know everything falls into place

Everything that comes to me, even if it is a tragedy Leaves me stronger than yesterday Trust me, I've seen this before Love and heart can open doors
And the pain will start to fade away

Every morning when I wake up and my feet touch the
Every turn about the day may bring something more,
something found
The day that I loved you, you're up so high, my saving
grace
It's how I know everything falls into place
It's how I know everything falls into place

I know everything will be alright
I know it will fall into place
So in the worst time of need There's a little voice that's telling me it's gonna be alright
It's gonna be just fine
It's gonna be alright Everything's gonna be alright
