Dawn Dancer

Crystal Eyes

Beyond the doors of the living where imagination fades The eyes of ancient ages are gazing over a crimson shade

The future unfolds with the rising sun Unspoken words where nothing yet's been done Where the book of life paints the sky

Dawn dancer share your mind Tell me the story of tomorrow Dawn dancer let me know the one way I must follow Dawn dancer turn the page Where do I go and what is my fate? Dawn dancer tell me all Now, before it is too late

A warning from the unknown A prophecy for the wise The coming lies before you, but can you see your own demise?

A distant sight visualize our doom Destiny calls and the future looms Where the book of life paint the sky

I'm ready for the end Let us find it together I'm ready for knowledge I've been waiting forever
