

Eyes of the Forest Gloom

Crystal Eyes

And so the story began with me falling into a dream where the forest were calling Closer and closer the twilight was dragging me down to the unknown

So here I am all alone in the tree land, feeling the wind of my fate close at hand Creatures of the night begins to take form I'm surrounded now

I don't know how it all began
I can't remember anything Yesterday's forever gone
I am trapped in a place beyond time

And the moon is shining bright over the forest
And the creatures of the night won't let me rest Beyond reality - for no one to see Dark is the dream - no one hears my scream
I can't stand those staring eyes
Eyes of the forest gloom
Eyes of the forest gloom

Predator eyes that watch me intensely, their gaze from the shadows are burning me slowly Hunted I search for my way through the dreamscape and it feels so real

Will I survive? I have to wake up, but deep inside I know that I'm trapped Lost in a dream that's no longer a dream My life is flashing by

Silver moonbeams light my way with their glow Yet, gnarled trees rip my skin as I go deeper down into the ominous gloom I'm afraid this path is leading to my doom

And so the story ends with me dying
