

Metal Crusade

Crystal Eyes

Hey Metalhead! It's time to wake the dead
Step out of the shade, and join the great crusade
I'll be your guide on this glory ride, and you will be my crowd. United, strong and loud

It's in our hearts, souls and blood forever, and nobody can change it. No never!
Since the day we where born, we've been bound to its powerful sound

Heavy metal, is our sound
Heavy metal, is our ground
Heavy metal, heavy metal
Come join the metal crusade

Fist in the air, I see them everywhere
Now they have to see what has got to be Screaming guitars heading for the stars
It's time to let it out, so raise your voice and shout!

It's in our hearts, souls and blood forever,
and nobody can change it. No never!
Since the day we where born, we've been bound
to its powerful sound

It's our religion

Heavy metal, heavy metal
Heavy metal, heavy metal
Come join the metal
Metal crusade
