

Queen Of The Night

Crystal Eyes

Can you hear her whisper words in the night
The wind blows strong and the moon is shining bright

There's an evil feeling hanging in the air
The queen is calling to you and soon you gonna be there

And now the time is short
This is the hour you gonna be caught
Into darkness you go
Into her arms

Queen of the night
Madam of mystery
Lady of darkness and pain

Can you feel her power when you look into her eyes
The air turns cold and your soul turns to ice

Walking in the shadows, never see the light
Now you are caught by the queen of the night
