

The Shadowed Path

Crystal Eyes

Striding slowly on this ancient path
Along the river of promises
Trees that taunt me , I hear them laugh
Spurring me on with their mocking leaves

Silver moonlight , touching the stream
Makes it shimmer like molten steel
Is this reality or just a dream
Confusion and strangeness are what I feel

Walking down the shadowed path
Beyond the threshold of no return
Regrets and memories fade away
As I travel on...

The shadowed path
Wandering eternally
The shadowed path
I am lost forever
