The Shadowed Path

Crystal Eyes

Striding slowly on this ancient path Along the river of promises Trees that taunt me , I hear them laugh Spuring me on with their mocking leaves

Silver moonlight , touching the stream Makes it shimmer like molten steel Is this reality or just a dream Confusion and strangeness are what I feel

Walking down the shadowed path Beyond the threshold of no return Regrets and memories fade away As I travel on...

The shadowed path Wandering eternally The shadowed path I am lost forever
