Victims of the Frozen Hate

Crystal Eyes

They came from far away, From a land in a frozen time Through ice and snow they walked With their broken homes in mind, They cried!

Without a warning
They ended all lifes in their way
In search for a land
Where they could forever stay

Blood on the snow and cries in the wind Wictims of hate, they fell to the ground One by one, they tasted vengeance
No one could fight the soldiers in a frozen time

With tears in their eyes
The ground was painted in red
They searched for revenge,
By tghe frozen hate they were led

A battle in tears for the homes they had Lost in the cold They murdered all those who dared to Come in their way

Who where those soldiers With frozen hate inside And all poor victims Who had no place to hide

...the soldiers in a frozen time they murdered all Those who dared to come in their way
