

Beyond You

Crystal Gayle

Nobody holds me like you can
Lately you've been holding me back
It's time to let you know
It's time to let me go
Gotta get a hold of myself

Reckon I need to see some new places
A little time alone will do me good
Being without you
I'll be thinking about you
Gotta reach beyond you, beyond

Nothing I've ever done's been harder
All these years no one's been closer
Can't sweep you under my bed
Just can't shake my head
And expect my wanting you to shake away

Reckon it's time to find a few new faces
A little time alone will do me good
Being without you
I'll be thinking about you
Gotta reach beyond you, beyond

Being without you
I'll be thinking about you
Gotta reach beyond you, beyond you
