

Do I Have to Say Goodbye?

Crystal Gayle

I've tried talking to you
But you've always got something to do
You're so caught up in chasing your dreams
There's no time left for me
Maybe you don't realise
The way that I'm hurting inside

Do I have to say goodbye to make you understand
Should I tell a lie about some other man
What's it gonna take to make you listen to me
If I were to walk away would you see me leave
What does a woman say to make a man believe
Can we talk tonight or do I have to say goodbye

I'm not asking too much
Just some time with the one that I love
In fact doing what we used to share
Don't you know that's not fair

Do I have to say goodbye to make you understand
Should I tell a lie about some other man
What's it gonna take to make you listen to me
If I were to walk away would you see me leave
What does a woman say to make a man believe
Can we talk tonight or do I have to say goodbye

Do I have to say goodbye to make you understand
Should I tell a lie about some other man
What's it gonna take to make you listen to me
If I were to walk away would you see me leave
What does a woman say to make a man believe
Can we talk tonight or do I have to say goodbye

Do I have to say goodbye to make you understand
Should I tell a lie about some other man
What's it gonna take to make you listen to me
