

Living in Tears

Crystal Gayle

In tears
How could he leave me in tears
And just throw away all the love that we made
For all of those years
How could he leave me in tears

In love
I woke up to find him in love with somebody else
Now I just can't help wonderin' how I got here
Living my life in tears.

Funny how things can change
Funny how the tables turn
When the fires of love die down
Someone's bound to wind up burned.

In time my eyes will dry
In time and the hurt that I feel
Will somehow heal and then disappear
And I won't be living in tears
No I won't be living in tears.
