

Special Love

Crystal Lewis

I try not to cry when I'm hurting inside
In my eyes you'd see my frown
'Cause I'd know I let you down
But you mean more to me
Than just another man
I find in my eyes you'll see
I have found my special love

You're so special
Special love in my heart you'll see my true feelings inside
But don't you know I can't let go
Of the things I shouldn't hold
But with you holding me
I can see through my tears
And for now I'll know I'm wrapped up in Special Love
