

Verdant Gaze

Crystal Stilts

She awaits me impatiently
Floats around me weightlessly
She whispers to me wordlessly
Urging me to discern her face

She disturbs me to see the deserted space
Where her pleas endlessly reverberate
She belongs to me
And she longs to be

She belongs to me
And she longs to be created
Re-created
She disturbs me to see

Through the perverted haze
She deserves to be redeemed
By a verdant gaze
