

The Truth

Crystal Viper

You, people, know the things like greed, and cruelty very well.

You can have the devil on your side, but he won't help you
Sooner or later you will drown in the Black Water or you will turn to stone...

The Goddess of Death with the golden scythe is patient

You still have time and it's up to you

If your blood will be the Blood of the Hero

Or if you will lose like the Son of the Wind...

I can tell you only one thing:

"The evil always returns and greed is blind...!"
