

General

Culcha Candela

Let me be your general
Let me love you protect and serve you
I'm not being cynical
No more fighting cause we stand strong

Let me be your tank
I'm gonna show off my armour
No more drama much more than a friend
Can't nobody harm you
I'm gonna always defend you

When it's cold
I put my arms around you
Let my love surround you
And when we grow old
I still have your back even under attack

Let me be your general
Let me love you protect and serve you
I'm not being cynical
No more fighting cause we stand strong

Girl ich will dein General sein
Chef deiner Division, Offizier und Gentelman
Boss in deinem Bataillon
Ein ganz heißes Geschoss, nich entschärft
Du bist es wert, ich lauf Patrouille um dein Herz
Wer dich sieht
Muss vor deiner Schönheit salutieren
Ich werd nie kapitulieren
Tausend Meilen mit dir marschieren
Vergiss die Blindgänger, du bist viel zu explosiv
Ich geb dir Deckung im Stellungskrieg

When it's cold
I put my arms around you
Let my love surround you
And when we grow old
I still have your back even under attack

Let me be your general
Chef deiner Division
I'm not being cynical
No more fighting cause we stand strong

Let me be your general
Boss in deinem Batallion
I'm not being cynical
No more fighting cause we stand strong

You never get done on the battlefield
Protected by my shield
Love is the only way
To stop the gun from barking all day
See the sun rising
Like day and night our love will stay
Girl I'm gonna fight for you

By any means necessary
All rivals get burried
Me close an x-file for you
And no mission too tough to be on
Me want you to know

Let me be your general
Chef deiner Division

Let me be your general
Boss in deinem Bataillon

Let me be your general
And let me love, protect and serve you
