Guardian Angel

Culture Beat

in all my silence I could hear her I was compelled to write it down astonished by the things she told me revealing all she had to say

I'm your guardian angel longing to hear my name and I've been with you for ages open breathe me in she says I'll grant you all your wishes and sprinkle candy in your dreams

I'm your guardian angel only a prayer away and I'll shelter you from darkness open and breathe me in
