Ooh mystery boy
Ooh mystery boy

Always too sad to point the finger
I told the boy to look at me
But what you say it never lingers
It's not what you say, but what you see

Boy look at me
I couldn't look no better see

Ooh mystery boy
Ooh mystery boy

It's too sad that love would sting you
You told the girl that it would be
A kind of love that's deep within you
A boy's a boy, but did they say he'd be

For eternity
Or just a mystery

Ooh mystery boy
Ooh mystery boy
Ooh mystery boy
Ooh mystery boy

Mystery boy
Mystery Mystery Mystery boy

It's too sad to point the finger
I told the boy to look at me
It's too sad that love might sting you
You told the girl that it would be
Some kind of love that's deep within you
Some dream that's hard to see
