

Your Kisses Are Charity

Culture Club

Last night you breathed the deepest sigh
Turned away with those cold cool eyes
You said won't you give me space to breathe
And my tears gave you confidence to leave

Now you say I'm just too much for you
There are things you'll never know
If you lie and cheat so easily
You'd better go, go go go, yeah

All I know is how I feel
And my heart was always yours to steal
But you take and never give to me
Your kisses are charity
Your kisses are charity, yeah

Yesterday you were my brightest star
But even when you're near I don't know where you are
I was wrong to show my weaker side
Now it's much too late to cry cry cry

I was blind to put my trust in you
If you leave me I'll fall apart
Did you plan to make a fool out of me
From the start, yeah yeah yeah, yeah

All I know is how I feel
And my heart was always yours to steal
But you take and never give to me
Your kisses are charity
Your kisses are charity, yeah, yeah

Now you say I'm too much for you
There are things you'll never know
If you lie and cheat so easily
You'd better go, go go go, yeah

All I know is how I feel
And my heart was always yours to steal
But you take and never give to me
Your kisses are charity
Your kisses are charity, yeah, yeah
