

So You Don't Love Me

Curtis Mayfield

So there's nothing left
What can I say other than take care of yourself?
Till the ends of the earth, I suppose
There's everyone's worldly vow

But somehow it seems mine
Have seem to have stopped half way
Maybe I wanna let things just come with me
So you don't love me

I am not accusing you
Do what you think you are oughta do
For it's just one thing and then another
Like you don't love me
So you don't love me

We'd given it all a final try
You've hurt me so bad I could have died
But ain't no hard feelings
I won't worry my mind with such dealings
So you don't love me

In a world already filled with misery
I have no intentions to let my spirit come right on me
Live on through the years, keep some proud on my face
The scar of the disgrace, I guess I got to find me a better place

Wherever you might be, keep yourself alright
Every heart I suppose got to slip out little light
Hope the other cares as much I used to do
Keep your love life true, keep your love life true

You don't love me

In a world already filled with misery
I have no intentions to let my spirit come right on me
Live on through the years and keep some proud on my face
The scar of the disgrace, I guess I got to find me a better place

So I am not accusing you
Do what you think you oughta do
For it's just one thing and then another
So you don't love me

So you don't love me
So you don't love me
You don't love me
You don't love me

So you don't love me
So you don't love me
You don't love me
You don't love me

You don't love me
So you don't love me
You don't love me

So you don't love me
