

Everyone Loves Lovers

Curtis Stigers

Everyone loves lovers
Rockin hand in hand
Blue eyed boy, brown eyed girl fame
See the woman with the man
Once they were strangers
Now they're going home
Everyone, everyone loves lovers
Except when you're alone

The world's in love with lovers
Throws open every door
Diamond ring who round her finger
They ain't looking anymore
Running through the rain drop
Stealing kisses in the sun
Everyone, everyone loves lovers
Except when you don't have one

Everyone loves lovers
Hear them talking on the phone
Baby baby I miss you so much
I meet when you're coming home
Thank god I've found you
Now I'll never be alone
Everyone, everyone loves loversexcept when you're alone
Except when you're alone
Is everyone, everyone, everyone, everyone's wants love
You're not alone
You're not alone
No no no
You're not alone
You're not alone
