To Be Loved

Curtis Stigers

Mind your manners, watch your weight Be a good boy, just behave What's wrong with you? Settle down, keep your two feet on the ground

Sit up straight, stand up tall Never falter, never fall Stay in school, make the grade Never fail and never fade

Be a hero, be a star Anything but what you are Find a girl to possess Always pay, pursue, protect Be the master, be a slave Work your ass into an early grave

But you deserve to be loved You deserve something real Time to heal Time to feel

Daddy's favorite little girl Dress up in your mommas pearls Serve us breakfast in his bed Heard a little kiss on the forehead

You are sugar, you are spice You are growing up so nice Paint your nails, paint your face Paint around the empty space

Find a man that can provide Try and fill the hole inside With a family and a home Tell yourself you're not alone Keep your memories of yourself In a shoe box on a closet shelf

But you deserve to be loved You deserve something real Time to heal Time to feel You deserve to be

You deserve to be loved You deserve something real Time to heal Time to feel

You deserve to be loved You deserve to be loved You deserve to be loved
